With one sick with tonsillitis (Matt Hector), one fractured finger (Gareth Hawkins) and one absent on training in Cornwall (James Wythe) some reinforcements were called for very late on Saturday evening and early Sunday morning. Matt decided to play and Kieran Allen and Isaac Fredericks responded to wake up calls for duty.

The results were somewhat a surprise. We won the foursomes 3:2 two with a 1 up result and the latecomers with a magnificent 4&3 win. Tails up the lads went into the singles. Dan, Sam, Kieran and Ross all won with Jon Putman securing a superb "dog licence" over his opponent. All in all a well earned win and an excellent start to the Colts season.
